Dear Friends,

So we come to the end of another year, and soon, the beginning of a new one, hopefully one that will bring some peace and prosperity. We are very grateful and lucky that OLTL is doing so well and is still on the air. It is so sad that we are the only daytime drama still shooting in New York and that such wonderful shows like "Guiding Light" and "As The World Turns" are now history.

I hope that you are all pleased with the show now. I feel it's wonderful that we have revived old characters, who had such impact on the stories when they were here, and have now been placed in the middle of new stories. It's a joy to have Kim Zimmer back as Echo DiSavoy, and Gina Tognoni, as Kelly; we have had such fun working together. And now we finally have Joey back; Tom Degnan is a terrific actor and such a delightful man. Terri Conn, formerly, Columbino, is a marvelous addition to the cast, as is Josh Kelly as Cutter and I hope that they all stay with us for a very long time.

The fan club is also thriving under the more than capable guidance of our long suffering and very patient President, Walter Miller. We are entering the 39th year! Amazing! It's been a year of change for Walter, and yet he continued to put up with me and do the work of running the fan club. I am very grateful to him and also to AJ and to Kit for the excellent job they do with the newsletter and the website, which, incidentally, we are looking into updating in the new year. I also want to thank Martha Julian for taking the time to come to the studio to take the Christmas photo, which was awkward to schedule, as we had Christmas in Llanview about a month ago. I am sincerely grateful to all of them.

Finally, I would like to wish you all health and happiness, a peaceful and joyful holiday season and all the best for 2011.

Love,

Erika
